

Neil Tran

2179 Clover Avenue, Coquitlam,
British Columbia V3J 5S9
123-456-7890

hello@reallygreatsite.com
www.reallygreatsite.com @reallygreatsite

Summary

Goal-oriented industrial engineer with more than a decade of manufacturing experience. Excited to streamline processes and find manufacturing opportunities at Willifred Industries using project management and lean methods.

Education

Tresswood University

Grover Wood

Master of Business Administration
2012

Student of the Year, Graduate School of Business

University of Glen Falls

Halderperry

Bachelor of Science in Industrial Engineering
2010

Outstanding Undergraduate Thesis for Industrial Engineering, School of Engineering

Skills

- Project management, sigma, and data analysis
- Critical thinking, math, and problem-solving

Work Experience

Industrial Engineering Manager Salem Court Industries

September 2017 - Present

Monitors business operations with a focus on improving efficiency. Evaluates data to implement improvements in production. Implements management controls to minimize production issues.

Senior Industrial Engineer Hillstreet Industries

July 2014 - August 2017

Collaborated with other senior engineers to design cost-efficient production floor layouts. Assessed departures from manufacturing standards and industry best practices. Developed management information and planning systems.

Industrial Engineer Eldhalm Manufacturing

June 2010 - July 2014

Reviewed production schedules, engineering specifications, and process flows. Developed management control systems for cost analysis. Implemented quality control procedures.

Certifications and Courses

The Lean Organization

De Lowe & Partners

November 2020

Certificate in Project Management

Tresswood University

October 2019